AIG in China

- ▶ The American International Group (AIG) can trace its roots back to 100+ years ago, when American Cornelius Vander Starr established a general insurance agency, American Asiatic Underwriters, headquartered in Shanghai, China.
- ▶ AIG markets its brand in China as Mei Ya. “Mei” means “American”, and “Ya” means “Asiatic”.
- ▶ AIG was the first foreign insurer in China to receive a license to operate in the market in 1992.
- ▶ In 2007, the former China Insurance Regulatory Commission (CIRC) approved conversion of all branches of AIU in China into a wholly owned subsidiary of AIG in China.
- ▶ AIG celebrated its centenary in 2019.

回老家

The Chinese characters for “Welcome Home” can also mean “We’re glad to be back.”

American International Group, Inc. (AIG) is pleased to announce that we have received a license to operate an insurance company in the People's Republic of China. The first foreign insurer to do so in more than 40 years. This is a proud occasion for us, because AIG was founded in Shanghai in 1919, and we have long known that one day we would be back. In many ways, the business practices and traditions that we developed in China many years ago will guide our organization today. AIG, through our affiliate, American International Assurance Company, Ltd. (AIA), will soon be operating out of our new offices in the American International Tower in Shanghai. Helping the people and businesses of Shanghai, as well as foreign bank accounts and individuals, with their life, property and casualty insurance needs, just as we did from our offices at 17 The Bund in the Shanghai waterfront so many years ago.

AIG World leaders in insurance and financial services.
